The I. O. O. F. anniversary services at Melvin last Sunday afternoon were attended by nearly 500 people. The address was delivered by Rev. Eldred Charles. There were about 100 members of the lodge and Rebecca in the line of march from the hall to the Baptist church.

It was noticed by many that more work was done in Elmwood cemetery the week preceding Decoration day, towards cleaning up and improving the grounds that ever before. Many lots were graded down to a common level, many were filled in and many that had had no care for years, were taken care of and nicely cleaned up this year. It is a fine start. Let us keep the good work going. Much remains yet to be done.

Business is Good HERE—

And no wonder—it doesn't take a very wise man to recognize in the clothes we are offering now, values that once gone will never be seen for many a day—even after the war is over. Their worth is firmly established when we tell you that they are

KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES

and the name "Kuppenheimer" stands everywhere for the highest development of clothes-building today.

These super-values are here in generous assortments, there are no limitations as to style, fabrics and colorings at every price.

Belted styles that are exclusive (a rarity these days)—trim military modes, sport suits, lounge suits, striking patterns in rich greys, subdued browns, blues and greens, solid colors, plaids and checks.

The provident man will probably buy two of these suits when he sees them.

WALDEN GEACH, PASTOR
R. M. JOHNSON, SUPT.

The ladies of the church will meet with Mrs. Fead this week.

Corner stone laying of new M. E. church Wednesday, June 20th. Complete program next week.

Rev. Geach is in Detroit this week making arrangements for the windows to be placed in the new church. There are four or five small windows at $15 yet to be taken. Anyone wishing to put one of these windows in can see the plans by calling at the parsonage.

The choir had a fine time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carless on Monday evening of this week. A fine supper was provided and Mrs. Carless was presented with a cut glass dish. Miss Buck, who has been a faithful member of the choir during the time she has been in Yale, was given a silver spoon to remind her of her choir friends and of their appreciation of her faithfulness. The south end people who were awake when the choir returned were treated to a short concert.

Come to church Sunday morning and stay for Sunday school.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

J. H. Rheingans, Pastor

The hope of the future is the youth of today. It is the churches' hope as well as the country's hope. The country will be saved by the young men who registered. The Church of Christ will be saved by the children of the Sunday Schools.

Next Sunday is Children's day. Morning service at 10. Topic: "The Children's Crusade."

Special programs in the Bible School at 11:15.

Christian Endeavor will be omitted. Baccalaureate service in the evening at 7:00 o'clock.

A cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Mechanic St. Church of Christ Sunday, June 10.

Morning sermon, 10:30. Eld. McCall will have charge of the service.

Sunday school at 11:30. Every teacher and scholar present.

Members and friends invited to these services.

Eldred Charles, Minister.

RID OF A LINGERING COUGH
You can get relief from racking, hacking coughs, from wheezy, sneezy breathing, from raw, inflamed throat and tight chest. W. G. Glazier, Bentonville, Ark., writes: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I used it for a cough that I had for years, and was said to have consumption." H. T. Hennessy.

Let us make your
WASHING
EASY.

"Wash Day" comes once every week and it's hard, hard work washing the same old clothes time after time. No wonder they call wash day "blue Monday."

Come in and get a modern washing outfit and "save your back." It will save you money because you will then have lots of time to do other more pleasant and profitable work. Our wash-things are best; they stand the test.
